Direct Cremation - £950 + disbursements

Direct cremation is a no fuss, no service funeral – no family or mourners are present.

Our fee includes the following:

- Meeting in person either in your home or at our office to guide you through planning a funeral and the process
- Completion of statutory cremation forms
- Collection and care of the person who has died within working hours (within London / Surrey)*
- A light oak effect coffin
- Transport of the person who has died to the crematorium
- For cremations: Non-attended cremation service at a crematorium, time and date of our choosing - you will be notified when
- Hand delivery of ashes within Richmond or Kingston upon Thames, otherwise a courier will be arranged at an additional cost.

Disbursements (added to the final cost):

- Crematorium fees (typically £305)
- Doctors' fees for signing Cremation Forms 4 & 5 (normally £164, but not relevant if death reported to HM Coroner)

*Collections: £195 for out of hours collection 5pm - 9am, weekends and bank holidays. Collections outside of our normal working area (10 mile radius of Teddington) are charged at £2 per additional mile.

Coffins: £125 for extra large coffin (in excess of 6'4" or 22" interior size)

We do not provide viewings or dressing of your loved one in a chosen outfit for a direct cremation.

Due to the level of disbursement costs promptly paid by us on your behalf, we request full payment to be made 3 days prior to funeral date by bank transfer.

No Fuss Attended Simple Cremation - £1,550 + disbursements

Attended, no fuss cremation for immediate family taking place before 10am. Typically a family led service, quietly reflecting listening to music, and/ or reading their own readings. We make the environment as personal as possible. Families choose this option when they want to be there for the committal but without the pressure of a full service or congregation. Can be partnered with a Celebration of Life service elsewhere.

Our fee includes the following:

- Meeting in person either in your home or at our office to guide you through planning a funeral and the process
- Completion of statutory cremation forms
- Collection and care of the person who has died within working hours (within London / Surrey)*
- A light oak effect coffin
- Transport of the person who has died to the crematorium (Private Ambulance)
- Coffin will be pre-placed in the chapel prior to your arrival at the crematorium.
- Services for No Fuss attended funerals are before 10am (a choice of dates will be offered, you can give us your preferences which we will do our best to accommodate)
- Choice of music tracks to be played (up to 20 minutes)
- Hand delivery of ashes within Richmond or Kingston upon Thames, otherwise a courier will be arranged at an additional cost.

Disbursements (added to the final cost):

- Crematorium fees (typically from £445)
- Doctors' fees for signing Cremation Forms 4 & 5 (normally £164, but not relevant if death reported to coroner)

*Collections: £195 for out of hours collection 5pm - 9am, weekends and bank holidays. Collections outside of our normal working area (10 mile radius of Teddington) are charged at £2 per mile.

Coffins: £125 for extra large coffin (in excess of 6'4" or 22" interior size)

We do not provide viewings for a no fuss funeral. Due to the level of disbursement costs promptly paid by us on your behalf, we request full payment to be made 5 days prior to funeral date by bank transfer.
